

5 days – autumn ride

Every autumn the free grazing sheep and horses are rounded up in the highland, collected from the farmers and driven to their local valleys.

Iceland in autumn has many colors and types of weather. Anticipate to be in golden sunshine one moment and to ride in rain and even sleet during the next. Of course that means long hours outside in sometimes cold weather.

We therefore recommend to dress well during these tours, to bring long woolen underwear and lots of woolen socks and gloves. It is also good to bring some „quick energy supplier” like chocolate. A warm rider is a happy rider!

From Bjargshóll Farm in the North we follow good riding tracks. Ride along green valleys, deep blue lakes. All the time we stay at Dæli Farm in Víðidalur. <http://daeli.is/>
